INFORMATION CONCERNING THE QUEBEC ACT RESPECTING PRESCRIPTION DRUG INSURANCE

All persons under 65 years of age who have access to a group insurance plan must enrol in the plan unless they already participate in another group plan or have insurance under a spouse's group plan. Proof of coverage must be kept on file with the employer.

By enrolling in your employer's group insurance plan, you are required to also arrange for coverage for all eligible dependents unless they are already covered under another group insurance plan.

Your dependents do not qualify for coverage under the RAMQ's basic prescription drug insurance plan if you already have coverage under an employer's group plan with the exception of a spouse aged 65 years or over.

When you complete your income tax return, you will be asked to confirm that you have complied with the provisions of the Act.
